It has been a long walk to the present.
This year I have managed to produced 13 publications, 6 of which combined the first 6 years worth of Beluga Weekly, the web comic series I started in 2009. And it is not about to end anytime soon.
I am currently working on January's comics which will involve the same characters from before. It will also tell a continuing story that will unfold throughout the year. By the way, there are adverts for my publications which appear below each of the 4 panel comics in this book. This was because I launched the comic book series, "New Stuff" at the start of 2014 and it has been up to me to promote my own work as best I can. I think I'm going to do without these for the 2015 strips as they do seem a little distracting. But I will keep plugging that comic book of mine! Buy the latest copy of New Stuff today!
